Properties of historic interest have been identified in the Wisconsin Architecture and History Inventory (AHI) published by the Wisconsin State Historic Society (1992). Such designation is not regulatory in nature, and in no way restricts redevelopment or alteration of a property. A listing of properties included in the AHI are published in the Appendix of this Plan.