

Native Plant List

The Beautification Committee is currently selling the book Landscaping with Native Plants of Wisconsin by Lynn Steiner for only $20. Please contact a member of the committee to purchase one. It is an all-inclusive book aimed at beginners and veteran gardeners alike, designed to help Wisconsin gardeners find, plant, and maintain the best native species for their specific sites

<https://www.nwf.org/Garden-for-Wildlife/about/native-plants>

This website allows you to input your zip code and find the best native plants, attract butterflies and moths, and support birds and other fauna

<https://dnr.wi.gov/files/pdf/pubs/nh/nh0936.pdf>

This is a great list that identifies plants suitable for various soil types.

<https://www.prairienursery.com>

This online plant nursery has an easy to search plant list that you can customize by soil, moisture, sunlight with lots of resources for learning more about native plants.

<https://www.wildflower.org/plants/>

This Native Plants Database is another website where you can explore the wealth of native plants in North America to search for 25,171 native plants by scientific or common name or choose a particular family of plants. It allows you to search a variety of characteristics to assure you are choosing the right plant for the right place.